

FLUSH

MAR '19
ISSUE 1

Spring Training
Edition

Fear Not In Flushing, NY

By Lucas Lay

Flushing, NY is an area you've probably heard about. The last stop on the 7 train. A place for dim sum, dumplings, and bubble tea. But that's old news. It's all that and a bag of hot pot flavored potato chips, and there's so much more to explore than ever before in 2019.

FLUSH is the end-of-quarterly editorial keeping you posted with what's hot, cold, fresh and frozen.

And since we know some of you will be in the area for sports and concerts, we're throwing you a bone or two on what to do before and after.

Because it's always good to know something new.

FOOD & DRINK

Let's start with the basics. If you already know what you want and can't bother to wait, get dim sum to go as early as 7AM at Corner 28 (135-24 40th Rd); for traditional table service, Asian Jewel (133-30 39th Ave) starts seating at 9:30AM.

Diners looking for experiences more out of the ordinary will be satisfied as Flushing is home to many DIY lunch and dinner spots. At Xiang Hot Pot (136-20 Roosevelt Ave), swish meat, fish, and vegetables in a subdued or spicy broth within arm's reach. Add the mala and butter bear to the mix to feel extra warm and fuzzy inside.

At Gyu Kaku Japanese BBQ (40-52 Main St, 2FL) you'll be happy you came hungry. Order countless appetizers, cuts of meat, seagood, and vegetable dishes from their a la carte, happy hour, and all you can eat menus.

One of the borough's most creative cocktail menus can be found at Leaf Bar, overlooking Flushing's expanding skyline from atop the Hyatt Place Hotel, where a drink won't cost you an arm and a leg.

And whether it's to catch the game or sing some BTS or BSB, Zebra Lounge II (136-11 38th Ave) is the sports/karaoke place you want to be.

Previous page
(counter-clockwise from left):

Big Xiao Long Bao
Shanghai You Garden
135-33 40th Rd
Flushing, NY 11354

Fruit Tea
w/ Salted Cheese Foam
Happy Lemon
133-35 Roosevelt Ave, Ste 11
Flushing, NY 11354

Welcome to Flushing
by Lady Pink
LIRR Flushing-Main St. Station
40th Rd. and Main St.
Flushing, NY 11354

Wait for it.

FLUSH

MAR '19

ISSUE 1

1123456789012